7.4. Members shall conduct themselves with appropriate decorum at all times. As leaders in the community, Members are held to a high standard of behaviour and conduct and must be mindful that as public figures the lines between public and private behaviour are not readily apparent, nor easily distinguishable by the public at large.

8. CONDUCT RESPECTING ADMINISTRATION

8.1. Council is the source of all governance authority and will make decisions on whether and to what extent to delegate Council's authority to others, including the Mayor, committees of Council and to the CAO or a designated officer. Under the direction of the CAO, staff in Administration serves Council as a whole. No individual Member has executive authority over City staff.

As public figures and representatives of the City, Council Members should act with discretion and be judicious in what material they post on social media. As with any other communications, Members are accountable for content and confidentiality.
